CALIFORNIA STUDENT COUNCIL ASSN. TO MEET ON PACIFIC CAMPUS TOMORROW FOR CONFAB

The California Association of Student Councils will again hold its annual District 10 Mid-Winter Conference at the College of the Pacific tomorrow, March 13 from 9:30 a.m. to 3:45 p.m.

Prominent leaders of the Pacific student body and of neighboring colleges will form panel discussion groups on several topics of interest to the visiting high school students. The groups and the members are as follows: "How Can You Fit Into College Activities?" Chairman Dale Clipper, Pacific; John Aitken, San Jose State; Dom Tarantino, Univ. of San Francisco; Merwin Mordine, Saint Mary's. "How Can School Councils Improve Assemblies?" — Chairman Art Dull, Pacific; Coralita Carlson, Pacific; Louetta Salsa, Pacific; George "Corky" Durham, Sonora High.

"Choosing A College That Fits You" — Chairman Phil Wogaman, Pacific; Bert Philips, San Francisco State; Jim Cavanaugh, Univ. of San Francisco; Earl Flegel, Pacific. "Your High School Record, Does It Count?" — Chairman Jack Francis, Pacific; Bill Jacobs, Don Fado, Ursula Herrick and Lee Shoemaker, all of Pacific.

District 10 president, George "Corky" Durham, will preside at the opening meeting with an expected 25 to 40 high school student-bodies represented by their respective leaders.

The luncheon speaker will be Dr. Elliot Taylor, Dean of Admissions at the College of the Pacific, who will speak on the "Marks of a good high school." The afternoon program will include a tour of the campus conducted by Larry Wells, representative of Blue Key. Also the afternoon will have a continuation of the discussion groups carried on in the morning.

Arrangements for the convention were made by Norm Harris, PSA vice-president.

Student Teachers To Have Hearing Tests

Beginning Monday, March 15, the speech department is administering hearing tests for those students working toward a teaching credential.

Sign up sheets for appointment dates are at the secretary's desk upstairs in Bannister Hall. Tests take five minutes. Those who administer the tests request that every one be on time.

'Y' Revitalizes Itself For '54

The coming of 1955 will mark the centennial year for the YWCA which was founded one hundred years ago in London.

For several years the national YWCA has had to cut down their budget, but because of the important work done on the college campus by the Y, they have never cut down their aid to campus YWCA's. This year, as in the past, more and more activities have been planned.

Three emphases will be made during the centennial year: re-dedication to the purpose of the YWCA; strengthening and adding to the membership; raising money for the YWCA budget. The national centennial fund will consist of five million dollars, Pacific's part is to raise $700.

On March 16, during the Tuesday night dinner and meeting of the "Y," there will be a program entitled "This is Your YWCA." The discussion planned by Diane Trethowan and her committee.

Sunday, March 21, the YWCA will hold a Silver Tea to raise money for the centennial celebration. Refreshments will be served and a program will be given at 4:00. A panel discussion will be given by three former YWCA secretaries: Miss Lillie Margaret Sherman, past secretary of the U.C. YWCA; Miss Rosalee Venable, past secretary of the national YWCA in China; Mrs. Frances Le Prohn, past secretary of the UCLA YWCA.

Mrs. Jacoby and Janie Barrett are in charge of the Silver Tea. All women students on and off campus are invited to come and participate in more of the YWCA activities.

Mary Lou Conrad is general chairman of centennial celebration activities.

A Cappella Choir Returns From Tour

The College of Pacific A Cappella Choir returned to the campus yesterday after a two week tour.

The choir, under the direction of J. R. Bodley, gave concerts in twenty-one California cities. Among the cities they visited were Berkeley, Bakersfield, Redondo Beach, Oakland, Long Beach, Vallejo, and San Leandro.

While in the Los Angeles area the group visited Knotts Berry Farm.

Third Parent's Day Set For First of May

The third annual Parents' Day on the Pacific campus will be held May 1.

The planning committee consisting of student leaders, faculty, representatives from the living groups and several parents laid the groundwork of the program last Sunday.

The program for Parents' Day will be both entertaining and informative. After the outdoor luncheon, the visitors will see a variety show, a talent show and panel discussions. The panel will be designed to give the parents information about the campus and the life of a student.

Following the afternoon program, the parents will be taken on a tour of the campus, served refreshments and treated to an outdoor concert by the Pacific band. The faculty will hold open house, giving the parents an opportunity to meet professors and administrators.

In the evening after dinner the parents may attend a performance of the spring musical at the Pacific Theatre.

A special chapel service, with Dr. Tully Knoles speaking, will be held in Morris Chapel on Sunday.

As an added attraction, the "Y" will hold its annual Strawberry Breakfast on Sunday, May 2.

The Parents' Day committee has requested that students clip this article out and send it home to their parents, asking them to reserve May 1 for Parents' Day.

Conservatory Trio To Play Original Composition By Former Instructor

By GEORGE FOWLER

An original composition, written by a former Pacific Faculty member, and dedicated to the Conservatory Trio, will be performed by that group next Tuesday night.

"Eine Nine-o'Clock Music," composed by S. R. Beckler, will be given by Horace Brown, Alix Einert Brown, and Edward Shadbolt, in a program scheduled for the conservatory, beginning at 8:15. The second half of the program will be devoted to the G Minor Quartet of Johannes Brahms. In this work, the trio will be assisted by Irva Rageth, viola.

Both compositions consist of four movements or sections. The "Eine Nine-o'Clock Music" begins with "Nightcap," continues with "Ignis Fatuus" (Will o' The Wisp) and "Nightshade," and concludes with "Evening Dalliance." The Brahms piece comprises four conventional settings; Allegro, Intermezzo, Andante Con Moto, and Rondo.

"Eine Nine-o'Clock Music" is a progressive study in ensemble textures and the characteristic qualities of the instruments. The first movement is chiefly concerned with contrapuntal combinations of instruments; the second is a scherzo, highlighting the violin, the third is a lyric atmosphere piece, focusing on the 'cello; and the finale features the virtuosity of the piano.

KCVN Hosts Members of Campus Radio Groups

Alpha Epsilon Rho will sponsor a Radio Workshop at COP tomorrow. Radio students from fifteen central California colleges and universities will attend the day-long program of radio activities.

Registration will begin at 8:30. Members of the honorary radio fraternity will direct and supervise activities in continuity, engineering, drama, interviewing, programming, music, and news.

KCVN will go on the air from ten to twelve, and the afternoon will be filled with more practice in each of these fields.

Dinner will be held at the House of Murphy; the group will then attend the Pacific Theatre production, "The Young and the Fair."

Stockton Police Return To Campus Monday; Parking Tickets Given Again

Traffic regulations on the Pacific campus will be enforced strictly beginning Monday, March 15.

The Chief of Police and Captain of Traffic for the City of Stockton inspected the campus traffic situation last week and decided the new plan was ready to go into effect. Violators will be given tickets.

Fraternity Circle has presented difficulties because the original marking scheme was not realistic. Finally the new parking stall arrangement was planned by the Interfraternity Council and painted by the College. This is the only revision of the previous system.

Traffic problems which have plagued the campus since the use of cars became so prevalent are danger to the pedestrians on the relatively narrow streets, commercial traffic around the dining hall and living groups, shortage of parking space and noise too near classrooms.

The Chief of Police recommends that the campus can be kept orderly by observing the restricted street signs, parking only in the correctly marked stalls and avoiding cross-walks and other designated areas.

"For many years (at least fifteen that I know of) there have been streets designated as 'No Parking' areas.

"The traffic has always been a problem. Originally the Student Affairs Committee tried to enforce regulations, but the students paid little or no attention. Later a student court was set up;

Shamrock Sale Slated By Spurs

March 17 is Saint Patrick's Day and once again the Spurs will be selling Shamrocks for five cents each. The Spurs, the Sophomore Women's Honorary Society, hopes that by raising enough money they will be able to go national. The Shamrock sale will start at 8:00 in the morning of March 17 and will be sold at noon in front of the cafeteria.

The Spurs are going to help with Parent's Day on May 1 by being in charge of the information and guiding tours. They will also help with the blood drive in the Spring.

Pacific Students Invited To Fun Fest At Stockton College

Pacific students are invited to dance to the music of Ted Herman at the annual Stockton College Fun Fest to be held on March 19, from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. A king and queen will be chosen to reign over the Fun Fest from the Stockton College student body.

Famed Play: "The Little Foxes" Chosen By Studio Theatre

The dramatic and stirring play "The Little Foxes" was chosen by the director George Felker as the next Studio Theatre production. The cast and crew members were chosen Tuesday after several days of try-outs.

Included in the cast are Regina Giddens, Dorothy Blais; Bertie Hubbard, Joyce Blatnic; Horace Giddens, Don Cunningham; Alexandra Hubbard, Joan Ellingson; Addie, Ina Flemming; Leo Hubbard, Fred Kellogg; William Marshall, Ronald Robertson; Benjamin Hubbard, Ted Smalley and Doynne Mraz.

The crew members are assistant to the director, Hudine Farquharson; lights, Rusty Straub; sound, Pat Howes; properties, Jane Spencer; librarian, Joan Keagy; costumes, Marla Ann Million; and stage manager Fred Olson.

BALLET OPPORTUNITIES OFFERED TO MEN

Helen Moore Roberts, director of the Stockton Symphony Ballet group, has announced that opportunities are available for men wishing to use their time artistically.

The annual Ballet performance will be May 25, and additional men in the company are needed to allow for performance of modern dance works which require large numbers of men. The training is without charge, and will be useful throughout life, Mrs. Roberts said.

Experience is not essential; Mrs. Roberts will hold telephone interviews before 9:30 a.m. at HOward 6-6525, and after that hour at HOward 2-2352.

The Ballet group will be accompanied by members of the Stockton Symphony Orchestra, Manlio Silva, conducting.

Aquatic Club Elects; Plans For Aquacade

The Aquatic Club will hold an election of officers at its meeting on Monday at 4:45 p.m. in 201 gym. The date for the aquacade will also be set at this meeting.

ON THE AIR

By "LIZ" LASKIN

Progress Report! . . . The new staff of KCVN is working feverishly this semester to untangle some of the knots in various Radio Pacific departments. For instance, the Continuity Dept. has finally thrown away some spots written in the year 48 B.C. and is now writing new ones. The Music Dept. has filed many terrific new discs; the new Glen Miller album, records of current Broadway shows, and the top ten popular platters. The Special Events Dept. has covered all home basketball games with a competent crew consisting of KCVN's best play-by-play callers such as Joe "Time In" Cala, Dick "Miracle Music" Lafferty, and Jim "History of Jazz" Spight.

The Sales Dept. hasn't provoked Ike into saying, "I listen to KCVN more than any other radio station," but such wonderful sponsors as The Tower, Freitas Music Company, Showers, the End Zone, and Horstman's Floral Show have brought precious time on KCVN. The Engineering Dept. has investigated every radio receiver in this vicinity so unless you're running your radio on high octane, we should be getting through to you.

As for Publicity — the PSA window and other informative areas are keeping you posted.

Radio Pacific To S.F. Conference

Members of Radio Pacific attended the annual Western Radio and Television Conference recently.

The program included the viewing of a live telecast at KPX, several excellent kinescope recordings of public affairs programs, and lively panels. Such subjects as "For Radio—A Confident Future," "Know Business is Show Business," and "Who Judges What—And How?" were discussed on these panels.

Many well-known personalities in the field of Radio, Television, and Journalism were present: Lee Giroux, television personality; Terrence O'Flaherty, Radio and

"Young And The Fair" Proves Abilities Of Actresses Instead Of Playwright

By GEORGE FELKER

Twenty-one young ladies stepped into the spotlight of Pacific Theater last Friday night, to bring life to Richard Nash's "The Young and the Fair." The play will be repeated tonight and tomorrow night at 8:30. The evening turned out to be a triumph of the young ladies over Mr. Nash.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

by Dick Bickler

"So I happen to enjoy basketball . . .
What's that to do with the way I grade in this class?"

The play deals with life at a fashionable junior college for girls. The theme revolves around the head-mistress, played by Dorothy Blais. It is the gradual collapse of liberal principles under the combined pressures of advancing years and fear of economic insecurity. Around this theme, Mr. Nash has drawn such characters as: a kleptomaniac, a self-conscious Jewess, a maladjusted society girl (much like the brat in the Children's Hour) and a wide assortment of other characters, each with her own problem. It is here Mr. Nash falls down. The play becomes so loaded with problems, it seems to cave in, thus losing its punch. The result is that Mr. Nash has created an interesting melodrama instead of a great social play. To its credit, though, the play does attain a real sense of how thorny and bewildering life can be, an endless emotional see-saw, a constant moral crossroad.

Freshmen Stop Show
The credit for making this play believable and poignant goes to the fine cast, which was made up almost entirely of freshmen.

The show was stopped three times on opening night, and each time by a freshman girl. As Le Baron, Joyce Blatnic first stopped the show in a beautiful scene where she explains her feelings about being a Jew. The whole character was sensitively and poignantly drawn.

Joan Ellingson also stopped the show in a thread of a part. Though she had little to do, Miss Ellingson had the audience constantly with her, whether she had a line to say or just walked across the stage.

As the kleptomaniac, Joan Keagy slowly built and established her character, and, in the final breakdown scene, left no stops out. The audience reaction was a spontaneous ovation for brilliant portrayal.

Difficult Role
In the play's most difficult role, Dorothy Blais, as the headmistress who would like to serve God, but is forced to serve Mammon, gives a dignified and honest portrayal, one conveying depth and inner feeling.

In another demanding role, Pat Howes, a freshman, was a treat to watch, bringing poise, assurance, and authority to the role of Francis.

Nancy O'Neil endows Dred with both a fetching and hateful quality well suited to the part. As Patty, Shirley Trump did a fine job in a difficult role, difficult because of its melodramatic qualities.

Minor Parts

Of the smaller roles, Virginia Herd, Terry Probert, and Jan Spencer drew our attention to their fine individual work.

Director DeMarcus Brown has endowed the stage with a striking and mobile three-in-one set (office, bedroom, and hall) which delighted the audience on opening night.

Tiger Mermen Drop First Meet, 44-40 Hoogs, Taylor, Pacific Relay Team Take Firsts

By DALE CLIPPER

The COP Tiger mermen lost their opening meet to the Sacramento Elks last Tuesday by the close score of 44-40. Hoogs and Taylor took individual honors for Pacific with first and second places for each swimmer. The Pacific relay team won the 400 yard free-style event. The meet was swam in a non-regulation 20 yard pool.

Coach Chris Kjeldsen is not at all down-hearted by this loss. His remark was that he is optimistic because many of the team members have had previous experience in inter-collegiate competition.

Boyd Mickley should develop into one of the top sprinters on the coast. Dickson Hoogs was a nationally-rated swimmer in junior college last year, and is the best all-around man on the team. Hoogs competes in the sprints, medley and 400-meter relays, and the individual relay.

Another outstanding performer from the junior college ranks is Bob Taylor, who has posted excellent marks in the 220 and 440 yard freestyle.

Bob Hardman, an experienced swimmer from last year's Frosh team, will provide the Tigers with strong competition in the backstroke contests.

Other members of the team are: Brick Green, sprints; Bruce Shore breast stroke; Al McMillan, freestyle; Ben Randall, individual medley; and Jerry Smith, diving.

Despite the lack of reserve strength, Pacific should have a fine year in the pool. As in the past, the Bengals have always been able to present top competitors in most events.

Results of Tuesday's Meet

400 yd. medley, won by Sacramento — time, 3:20
220 yd. freestyle — Taylor (P), Gillin (S) — time 2:27
40 yd. free style — Johnson (S), Green (P) — time :19
120 yd. individual — Hoogs (P), Hogan (S) — time 1:18
Diving — O'Gohrman (S), Smith (P)
100 yd. free — Johnson (S), Hoogs (P) — time :56
200 yd. backstroke — Hogan (S), Hardman (P) — time 2:34
200 yd. breaststroke — Delaneau (S), McMillan (P) — time 2:44
440 yd. freestyle — Johnson (S), McMillan (P) — time 5:17
400 yd. freestyle medley — won by Pacific (McMillan, Green, Randall, Hoogs) — time 4:09

DR. KNOX HONORED

Dr. Walter S. Knox, Administrative director of physical education at Pacific, has been chosen by the Accreditation Committee of the State Board of Education as a member of the visitation committee to evaluate the program and facilities for training teachers at San Francisco State College.

He was bestowed this honor Friday, March 5, at a meeting held in San Francisco.

The Accreditation Committees represent Western College Association, California State Board of Education, and American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education.

BENGAL TENNIS TEAM SCHEDULES TOP U.S. TEAMS

College of the Pacific's young tennis team is this year having one of its best schedules ever. Coach Chuck Melick has lined up the best competition available for the Tiger squad.

So far this year the Tigers have been beaten by both Stanford and California. However, Coach Melick has a lot of confidence in his hard-working group and he declares that they will improve as they get experience.

The Tigers will venture to Los Angeles to play both UCLA and USC on March 26 and 27, in what will be the highlight of the year for our netters.

The leading courtman for the Bengals so far this year has been veteran George Fowler. Fowler, according to many, could be one of the leading players on the coast with a little more experience and work.

All of the Tigers matches this year are being played at the Oak Park Courts.

Members on this year's team are: Peter Runkel, Dick Sea, Norm Dieher, John Cottrell, Jesus Reyes, Hung Jung, and George Schobanglous.

Among some of the other schools which the team will play are: San Jose State, St. Mary's, Santa Clara, Fresno State, Sacramento State, Williamette, and San Francisco State.

UCLA Downs COP In Thriller, 9-6

By AL MANGIN

COP's rugby team lost another tough game last weekend to a hosting UCLA Bruin team. The score was 9-6. Fans rated the game as one of the most exciting games ever witnessed in that area. The final score might well have been different had there not been a technicality ruled against Pacific as Don Cornell scored from 20 yards out on a try. The officials ruled that Cornell failed to touch the ball down on the try.

Both teams scoring was restricted to points scored via penalty kicks. The Bruin's John Shinnick booted three, while Lynn Swanson converted two for the Tigers.

This week the Tigers travel to San Francisco to meet a strong San Francisco Olympic Club on Saturday afternoon. The Pacific ruggers will be out to avenge a 16-3 licking administered by the Winged "O" in a game played last month.

Coach John Rhode is very optimistic over the Tigers chances to an upset this weekend. Rhode believes that the team, with players like Swanson, Jim Baun, Don Cornell, Ken Swearingen, and Al Dattola, is capable of knocking over any team in the league, providing the Tigers play up their capabilities.

BASEBALLERS BEGIN

Pacific's baseball team will open the 1954 season this week. The Tigers met Santa Clara yesterday and will run up against the Cal Aggies in a game tomorrow afternoon. Both games will be played away from home.

Coach Van Sweet is pleased with the relatively large turnout for the squad and is looking forward to a fine season. The team has some 25 games scheduled, including a tour that will take them through Arizona and southern California, where they will face the likes of Arizona State, San Diego Navy, Camp Pendleton Marines, and the Trojans of USC.

PEK Downs Phoos For Mural Cage Title

Thursday evening, March 4, Phi Epsilon Kappa defeated Omega Phi 39 to 32 to win the intramural crown. Behind the accurate long shots of Gene Wellman the athletic men maintained a slight lead throughout the entire contest. The game was highlighted by the performances of A. D. Williams, Wellman and Alvarez for the Phi Epsilons and Harris, Jacobs, and Sylva of the Phoos.

This year's intramural basketball provided a good competitive spirit for the male population on campus who participated. Dr. Voltmer and Cecil Harp should be commended for their fine direction of this year's league.

The Ski Club will hold a meeting next Wednesday afternoon at 5 p.m. in 209 Administration Building. Plans for a Giant Slalom Race will be discussed.

Mural Track Will Be Run Next Week

College of the Pacific's intramural and interclass track meets will be run simultaneously next week on the COP track rather than opening with the intramural competition as scheduled this weekend.

Coach Earl Jackson announced the switch, inasmuch as the muddy track precludes the possibility of holding races tomorrow and Friday as scheduled.

Lettermen are not eligible for intramural and they are for interclass, but Jackson expects little conflict as he has only four block winners back from last season.

Coach Jackson also announced that the Pacific-Fresno State meet here next month has been advanced one day to April 9, at 2:30 p.m. The change was made to allow local and Fresno track filberts to attend the University of Kansas vs. University of California dual meet in Berkeley on April 10, when Kansas' great miler, Wes Santee, will perform.

Romanoff and Thomas Set Hoop Records

By BOB YEAMAN

Nick Romanoff of the Pacific varsity and John Thomas of the Tiger yearlings set new school and CBA scoring records during the past hoop season.

Romanoff hit for 414 points in 28 games eclipsing the school's old record of 405 set during the 1952-53 season by diminutive Gene Sosnick.

In CBA games big Nick scored 162 points for a 13.5 average putting him well up among the scoring leaders.

The 6 ft. 7 in. junior from Alameda had his best night against BHI Russell and the USF Dons as he scored 29 points. Nick also led the Tiger squad in rebounding.

John Thomas of the frosh was even better as he led all CBA freshmen in scoring with 203 points in eight games for a 25.4 average. The jump-shot artist from El Cerrito set a new school and CBA record by scoring 38 points against the San Jose Frosh.

In two non-conference games the big center hit for 23 points giving him a season total of 226 points for an average of 22.6 points per game.

This year also marked the first time in Pacific's history that three players went over the 300 point mark. Besides Romanoff they are Al Mangin with 397 and Clyde Connor with 301.

His work has been in a variety of media, among them opera, song, piano music, and choral, as well as orchestral and chamber works. His style is tinged with the traditional romanticism, but is predominantly neo-classic in emphasis.

The Brahms quartet is one of the most celebrated of all quartets, and is representative of the youthful period of Brahms compositional maturation.

but few students would act as officers to tag cars or testify against other students," stated Dean Ed Betz when commenting on the present solution.

The Business Office, which is in charge of grounds, streets and buildings, took over the traffic regulation when student control failed. A city traffic engineer set up a system which seemed to be fit this complicated problem. This system was followed until many complaints arose last semester and the fraternities suggested the remarking of parking stalls near their houses.

The new plan affects only fraternity circle and will not provide more space in the vicinity of the class buildings.

Bio. Club Initiate 6 New Members

The Beta Beta Beta, national honorary biological society, initiated five provisional members and one active member on March 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Dean Lloyd Bertholf, the society's advisor.

The new initiate into active membership is Walter Harvey. The provisional initiates, or those who have not completed ten units in a biological science, are Mary Stella Posinelli, Marlene Metrovich, and Mrs. Ezane Crumb, all of Stockton College, and Amy Oshima and Della Belkney of Pacific. The officers of Tri-Beta are Ed Chin, president; Gilbert White, vice-president; Joan Franko, secretary; Marilyn Tough, treasurer; and Yola Walker, historian.

QUARTERBACK MEMBERS MEET WITH EXEC. COMMITTEE

Representatives from the Quarterback Club met with the PSA executive committee last Monday night to assure the school of the club's pledge of renewed cooperation with the PSA in promotion of attendance and enthusiasm at the football games next fall.

Attention, Juniors!

The Junior-Senior Ball will be held April 23. An appeal is being made to you for ideas on how to raise money for this event. Because of a limited budget, the P.S.A. will not be able to allocate $50.00 to the class as was formerly believed.

Please let the class officers know if you have any ideas to send the class finances soaring upward. Also, if you will be interested in working on a committee for the dance, especially on decorations, let the officers know.

Attention, Dance Committee Chairmen!

Please turn in progress reports on your committees for the Junior-Senior Ball before March 20 to Huberta Williams.
